Situation Room

** COUP D'ETAT IN MYANMAR **

Period under review: from 3 March 2021 to 6 March 2021.

[This report is based on publicly available sources to describe a changing situation. Information subject to change.]

Situation analysis recap:

- At least 38 people died on Wednesday, according to the United Nations, when online images streamed out of Myanmar showing security forces firing into crowds and blood-covered bodies of protesters with bullet wounds in their heads.
- Undeterred by Wednesday's deaths, protesters made their way out on to the streets of Yangon and Mandalay. Residents said that five fighter jets had made low passes in formation over Mandalay in what appeared to be a show of military strength.
- The Singapore Government urges its citizens currently in Myanmar to leave the protest-riven country as soon as they can.
- On Friday, pursuant to the new Executive Order, issued by President Joe Biden, the U.S.
  Department of the Treasury, in consultation with the Department of State, imposed sanctions on 10 individuals involved in the coup and three entities supporting the military apparatus.
- Hundreds of thousands of protesters blocked major roads across Myanmar on Saturday, including in the commercial hub of Yangon, as demonstrations continue against last month's coup. "We can't lose the momentum of the revolution," leading protester Ei Thinzar Maung wrote on Facebook.
- David Swanson, UN regional spokesman in Thailand called on the ASEAN member states to leverage Myanmar military junta to protect people's freedoms.

Sources/Further Reading:

Myanmar pro-democracy protesters return after 'bloodiest day' since coup. (4. March 2021). France24. Available at: https://www.france24.com/en/asia-pacific/20210304-myanmar-pro-democracy-protesters-return-after-bloodiest-day-since-coup

Myanmar coup: 'Everything will be OK' teenage protester mourned. (4. March 2021). BBC News. Available at: https://www.bbc.com/news/world-asia-56277165

Protesters block main roads in Yangon, other cities across Myanmar. (6. March 2021). DPA International.

Available at: https://www.dpa-international.com/topic/protesters-block-main-roads-yangon-cities-across-myanmar-urn%3Anewsml%3Adpa.com%3A20090101%3A210306-99-712614

Sanctioning Leaders of Coup in Burma. (5. March 2021). Editorials. Available at:

https://editorials.voa.gov/a/sanctioning-leaders-of-coup-in-burma/5803103.html

Singapore advises citizens to consider leaving Myanmar as soon as they can. (4. March 2021). The Straits Times. Available at: https://www.straitstimes.com/singapore/singaporeans-strongly-advised-to-leave-myanmar-ministry-of-foreign-affairs

UN calls on ASEAN states to leverage Myanmar military junta to protect people's freedoms. (6. March 2021). ANI News. Available at:

https://www.aninews.in/news/world/us/un-calls-on-asean-states-to-leverage-myanmar-military-junta-to-protect-peoples-freedoms20210306151508/

Analysis by: Aljaž J. Kranjc

Would you like to know more? Are you interested in international security? Join us. Find more about Euro-Atlantic Council of Slovenia at www.euroatlantic.org or contact us at info@euroatlantic.org.